THE OFFICIAL SOURCE FOR STAMP ENTHUSIASTS

2013 / Volume 18 / Holiday

Happy Holidays

Every good tradition has a beginning

In the early 1960s, the public made a Christmas wish. Americans wanted a holiday stamp — a piece of postage to add a festive touch to cards and packages.

So the Postal Service listened, issuing its first Christmas stamp in 1962. The demand for the now-classic design (below) was so great that a second print run had to be ordered. By year's end, one billion stamps had been inked.

Ever since, the Postal Service has celebrated the holidays with special stamps and keepsakes.

We hope you'll find just the right gifts in the following pages to give to the people you love — and pick out the perfect stamps to add one last thoughtful touch to your holiday mailings.

To save you time, we've made ordering flexible and simple: Just use the enclosed order form, call 1 800 782-6724, visit usps.com/shop, or ebay.com/stamps.

Wishing you a warm and bright holiday season,

Sonja Edison

A self-supporting government enterprise, the U.S. Postal Service is the only delivery service that reaches every address in the nation, 150 million residences, businesses and Post Office Boxes. The Postal Service receives no direct support from taxpayers. With 36,000 retail locations and the most frequently visited website in the federal government, the Postal Service relies on the sale of postage, products and services to pay for operating expenses. Named the Most Trusted Government Agency five consecutive years and the sixth Most Trusted Business in the nation by the Ponemon Institute, the Postal Service has annual revenue of more than $68 billion and delivers nearly half the world's mail. If it were a private sector company, the U.S. Postal Service would rank 26th in the 2008 Fortune 500.

A gift for everyone on your list. For those who love...

E A new Forever® stamp celebrates Kwanzaa, the annual seven-day, non-religious holiday that brings family, community, and culture together for many African Americans.

F Gossaert's 1531 painting Virgin and Child, which shows Mary in a contemplative pose, brings poignancy to this beautiful piece of postage.

G Featuring the calligraphy from the 2011 Eid stamp now on a green background, the 2013 issuance commemorates the two most important festivals—or eids—in the Islamic calendar: Eid al-Fitr and Eid al-Adha.

H Celebrated by Jews worldwide, the joyous Festival of Lights spans eight nights and days of remembrance and ritual. Vermont blacksmith Steven Bronstein crafted the menorah pictured on this new stamp.

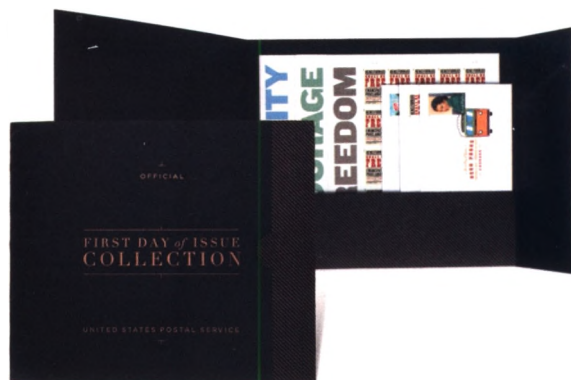

A Evoking the memory of a civil rights milestone, The 1963 March on Washington stamp depicts marchers, holding placards calling for equal rights and jobs for all, against the background of the Washington Monument.
